Dear Dr. Rajkumar,

We are pained to hear the news of sad & unfortunate demise of one of your faculty members Dr. Navin K. Professor Deptt. of Pediatric & Preventive Dentistry on 28.03.2023. He was an excellent academician, researcher and an extraordinary clinician. His demise is a great loss to whole dental fraternity especially Pediatric Dentistry family.

We the members of ISPPD whole heartedly stand by your institution in this moment of grief and pray to the Almighty to grant peace & tranquility to the departed soul, at the same time give courage to you, your colleagues & his family to bear this irreparable loss.

AAPD defines us as Age-defined,
But one to one branch we are not confined.
To determine best for the child,
When parents come and complaints are filed.
Prevention is better than cure,
To parents this we do assure.
Pedodontists are psychologists well trained,
With child psychology in our mind well retained.
When child cries and becomes emotive,
Instilling a positive dental attitude becomes our motive.
Aiming at comprehensive oral health care,
Collaborating many aspects, the other dental specialities share.
From keeping an eye on developing dentition and occlusion,
In case of any malocclusion,
To go for interceptive or corrective treatment is our conclusion.
With preventive treatment as an amendment,
Be it caries risk assessment.
From application of sealants achievement,
To fluoride treatment.
Form developing dentition to maintenance of space,
We make sure such things to be in place.
For checking oral habits to control,
To fabrication of mouthguards for sportsperson with goals.
Moulding and child's behaviour guidance,
Keeping in view the child's age in accordance.

From treatment that is restorative,
And finding out what is causative.
From doing Root canal treatment,
Treating the tooth rightly is our commitment.
From Diet counselling,
To making sure the sugary foods they are cancelling.
As very important aspect of dentistry is artistry,
Making sure to keep the little one's Cosmetic dentistry.
We do not hesitate carrying treatment for the Special child,
As being pedodontics facing such situations we are styled.
In a very positive spirit,
I would like to conclude pediatric dentistry HAS SKY OF NO LIMIT...
