Any member of the Executive Council (including the office bearers) who is absent for three consecutive EC meetings or more than half of the meetings held during his/her term of the Executive Council shall cease to be a member of the Executive Council. Such a member shall not be eligible for re-election/re-nomination to the Executive in the next term.

- (iv) If any member while serving in EC or in any office bearer post is found to violate the Constitutional By-Laws, then it will render him/her ineligible to continue his/her term in that post and file nominations for any post in the future for a minimum period of 5 years.
- (v) No members can file nominations for the same post for more than 2 consecutive terms. A lapse of one term is mandatory for applying for the same post including the EC member's post.
- (vi) To reapply to the Executive Council, a member must have attended a minimum of 3/5 EC meetings held last year, out of which one meeting attended must be out of the conference/convention venue.

*Criteria for being a member in good standing

- He/she should be a life member of the ISPPD.
- Should have attended a minimum of 3 annual conferences/PG conventions of ISPPD as a life member in the past 5 years.
- No financial default should be there in any form, either in ISPPD or in any other society/association.
- Should not have violated any rules of the registered professional body.
- No civil or criminal litigation pending.
- Should have actively participated in the association activities.
- Any member who assumes the post should execute the responsibilities.
- Any breach in the continuity will not be considered as a member in good standing.
- Any member who remains dormant from the association or the profession shall not be considered as a good member.

Note-
